“ Addressing those I love and care about so much, you are in my thoughts and prayers during this frustratingly sad and difficult time It's not fair, nor is it easy to say, "Goodbye, for now, Beloved/Dad, and Godspeed you to your True Peace and Joy, everlasting," but, oh so empathetically, I know how much comforting assurance GOD's Word truly S and provides in such a sorrowful time and circumstance, as that of which you now find yourselves facing and absorbing the full shocking realization. Cancer cannot conquer a living spirit. There is Hope and The Anointed One provided it.

We draw our supernaturally-gift Comfort in the knowledge and acceptance of the Everlasting Life which Our Lord and Savior so perfectly made ours, as a fulfillment of Life's Journey, including that of which Kent Aaron Bennett was blessed to receive. It's been a hard, strugglesome path to travel....a journey through trials and tribulations has had a toll on all of you. Dear Ones, please, know (beyond knowing) that you are so very Loved and not one iota alone in this.

You have to finish your destined Path, of which braving the difficult stages of grief is different for each of you. There will be a time when it is so much different than what is transpiring in your senses right now. You will always remember, but there will come Peace in this process.

You have my very deepest, empathetic condolences and a whole lot of Love, my dear family and friends!

~ In respect and Christ's Abiding Love, Michele
