“ Mom & Frank were across the street neighbors for years. Appreciated that Frank looked out for her & helped her when he could. A very kind man. Just talked to him a couple weeks ago, he seemed to be doing so well. A real shock to hear of his passing. Sorry for your loss. God Bless you all.

“ Frankie was another one of our siblings it seemed. In our younger years Frankie hung out at our house a lot. He came over to see Jeff and Tammy but we all got to enjoy his presence. We all loved Frankie-he was just so likeable. He would always joke and laugh with us. Our parents Dutch and Nita loved him. He was another son to them, he just slid right into our family and none of us even noticed he wasn't our blood sibling. It was just that natural. Our mom called him Frankie baby and said he was the cutest thing. Our dad adored Frankie I think mostly because they both shared a passion for boxing. Dad loved it when Frankie came over. Frankie and dad would talk most of the time about boxing. One of the last times I talked to Frankie at the gym he told me he had taken some video years ago of my dad boxing around in the house. We laughed and laughed about that. We shared a lot of memories that day. Later in life Frankie mentored my middle son and took him under his wing. He taught my son how to be a disciplined boxer and overall young man. I thank Frankie so much for what he did for our son and am grateful to have had the opportunity to tell him that the day we talked at the gym. When our son was in the ring fighting most of the time my eyes were on Frankie. I loved watching his reactions of the pride he had for all of his fighters. Frankie was one of the most successful people I know. He was living and loving his dream at the gym. Frankie's passing is a loss to us all. He will always live on in our family's heart as he was a part of our family. Each one of us have at least one story about Frankie. I both laugh and cry as I wrote this thinking of the silly things we did and said in those days. Frank and Barb you have raised a wonderful loving son who I know you must be so proud of. Thank you for sharing your son with our family. May God bless you all.

“ I knew Frankie from school in Shelton!him and my brother a Jeff who was a few yrs.older then Frankie were good friends in school.I got to know Frankie through Jeff so we became good friends.He spent a lot of time at our house and my Mom and Dad considered him a Son.Frankie was a big mentor to me during Track season,he cheered me on during my races and always found time to train with me during the off season or just on any day of the week I wanted to go out and run.When Jeff passed away yrs.back Frankie was one of the first people we thought of for a Pall bearer,but he was unable to be one. Frankie was a great guy he helped me a lot emotionally and just being there when I needed someone to talk to in school. Im sorry for your loss, your family should be very proud of him and the fact that he was a great teacher, trainer and motivator. Kelly (Stoppkotte) Merrill.
