“ I have known Lenard since I was old enough to hold a horseshoe in my hand. He was always fun to play and I have many fond memories growing up playing in horseshoe tournaments that he attended as well. He was a good man, and I and the rest of his horseshoe family will sure miss him. Rest In Peace Lenard.

“ Pedersen family,

My favorite memory of he and Phyllis was the story they both shared with me a few years ago while we were at an Ainsworth tournament.

We had just finished a match and he was happily telling and laughing about how years earlier when the Worlds Tournament was held there in 1986.

Naturally the tournament was being held during our corn irrigation season, he had irrigated late into the night in order to pitch the next few days.

He had finished just in time to take off in the morning for the drive to Ainsworth.

Found the park for the tournament and then drove the few miles to Long Pine where they had rented a cabin on the creek.

They checked in at Cabin office, went to their cabin and both being very tired they just lay down on the bed and took a nap without unloading.

Later when they awoke they took a walk around the park and creek. On arrival back at their cabin they were surprised that there was another couple from (I don't remember) setting on the porch enjoying the day.

They puzzling look at each other wondering what the heck was going on?

Being country folk they were not surprised to have found the cabin unlocked upon their arrival and had gone in and went to sleep on top of the bed.

It was then they looked at their cabin key...They noticed they were just off one cabin number!

Being the wise old farming people they were, they said Good Morning and went to the correct cabin!

I will never forget the smile on both their faces while Lenard told the story and Phyllis correcting him on a few details! :)))

Rest in Peace my old friend, (I'm sure God has you in the right cabin today) :)

Sincerely,

Rex Robison Jr.
