“ Mary, Faith & Jeanetta We are very sorry for the passing of your husband, father, and grandfather. We will always remember him, for his warm heart, and the smiles he had to give with them. We always enjoyed coming and visit and listen to his stories of the way life was when he was growing up. He may have went home to rest now, but he will always hear your weeps of lonelieness for him but he would want you to be happy and remember him that he is not gone but in your hearts, and will always be with you in your need spiritually. The warm feeling you will have in your heart is him always thinking of you and how much he will always Love and Protect and that he is very lucky to have family that Loved, and took really good care of him and his needs. God Bless You and Your Family. From Carrie & Jay Wingrove with Friendship & Love Always

“ Faith, I know this has been a terrible ordeal for you and your family. I hope you can find comfort in knowing that you did everything you could possibly do. Your Dad/Grandfather had a full life filled with loving support. Now he has been called home to keep watch over those he cared about. I'm so sorry I can't be with you at this time. I'm here for you whenever you need me. Kathryn
