“ So sorry I didn't know she had passed away. She was friends with my mother from Wilcox. She was a wonderful, caring woman who would call my mother, send gifts and called the event mother passed away. RIP Barb and thank you for being such a good friend to my mother.

“ Barb was my friend Denis' Mother but in some ways she was, when I was in high school, like the big sister I never had. A close friend and nursing colleague of my Mother, Barb and Mom always knew what Denis, Terry and the rest of us were up to...even before we did. Or so it seemed. As an adult, I lost contact with Denis and Barb but reconnected a few years ago when Denis was on his life's final journey. Barb's compassion for Denis and those in his residence reflected the kindness of her spirit. I cherish the few times, on the phone and at a restaurant I shared with Barb and mutual friends these past few years. A gracious, devoted and loving Mother to Denis and a friend to us rather rowdy boys who somehow made it through our adolescence to manhood. We are grateful for having Barb watching over us...then and now. God Bless you Barbara Seerley, you are a shining light in the lives of everyone you touched.
