“ We are so sorry for your loss. Mandi thought the world of Ben from the day he was born. I wish we had known him better. Our hearts go out to his wife, parents, siblings and friends.

PS we accidentally purchased duplicate flowers which will be substituted by the flower shop. I should have read all of the pages. We didn't intend for our names to be listed, but are glad you all know we are thinking of you.

“ Ben you gave love and respect to your aunt and uncle, made efforts to see us and was always so fun!! him and Debbie would bring prepared awesome food to grill with his chef touch! So many talents, of course w a cooler full of pop for grandkids and so funny a Candy Run for them he said!! Love him so much and grateful he would spend time with us and he found Debbie the perfect match of love together!

Ben my heart filled with ❤️ the first time I met you. I will never forget you, you became part of my family. That smile was medicine to the soul. It is hard to understand why God takes the good one's first. You will rest in the Kingdom and one day we will be together. RIP sweet boy and I will take care of your Mom. God will comfort your family. I love you Ben
