Beverly Marjuerita Moore was born on July 31, 1933 in Shelton, Nebraska to Charles H. and Emma L. (Gray) Moore. She grew up in Shelton and as a young adult moved to the Beatrice State Developmental Center in Beatrice, Nebraska. Beverly later moved to Kearney where she made her home with Mid Nebraska Individual Services.

Beverly loved listening to music, especially her vinyl records. She also loved animals, in particular her cat Lucky, and her dog Brownie. She always looked forward to activities with her MNIS friends and family, such as going out to get her hair done, riding the Ferris Wheel at carnivals and shopping. When going out she always made sure to wear some of her favorite jewelry.

She is survived by a nephew, Jim Cole of Gibbon; two nieces, Tara Corder and husband Steve of Kannapolis, NC and Sally Webb and husband Wayne of Littleton, CO; as well as several great and great great nieces and nephews.

Beverly was preceded in death by her parents and her sister and brother-in-law, Virginia and James Cole.
