“ Brad loved his family above all else. My thoughts and prayers are with you all.

“ We should all be able to have happiness in our lives. It is so short. Forgiveness is something we should all practice more and God's Grace is a beautiful beautiful thing. I did not know Brad very well but we were Facebook Friends and I enjoyed reading his posts. I noticed he was struggling trying to move on and was clearly in love again. I think his pain was to much to hold on to in this land of the living but we should never have remorse because God would not want those chains on you. Forgiving is freedom. Live, Love and Laugh. Such a sad sad loss. RIP Brad.

“ To the Family of Brad Woods, I just wish Brad had known how much we all cared for him. He was always welcome and included in our family gatherings. Brad was usually the one to say prayers at dinner time and attended Church with Kelly and us. So we knew and loved his spiritual side. He was so intelligent, articulate, and helpful to Connie and I. The Brad we knew was quiet and sometimes sat away from the rest of the family but we never saw the darker side of Brad. He is missed and hopefully has found peace in the arms of the Lord. God Bless You All, Lew and Connie Shoff

“ Brad, what a void you filled in our lifes back in the '80's when our lifes were pretty desolate...I treasure the visits in the last years, the laughter, and the sadness that we shared. My heart is broken that you chose to leave us, but I know you are in a way better place and no more pain....Love ya' kid....Pat Head-Gewecke

“ Love and miss you Buttercup! I wish you could have seen yourself through our eyes and most of all through Gods eyes. We will miss you always and forever! I know you're chilling with Jesus, making him laugh as much as you made us laugh. We will always treasure the short time we had with you. I will never forget you stalking the mangy Elk and you and Rodney climbing the Grand Canyon. Love always Peaches! :)

“ I miss you so much!!! Thank you for loving me, for loving my family. You brought such good into our lives. I don't know how to move on. I will miss our treasure hunts, shopping at Hobby Lobby., laughing about whether kittens "knit " or "knead" , road trips , crafts our dogs , our praying and church.... List goes on. I love you Brad. You only needed to love yourself a such as you loved others.

Bradley, I can t tell you the love and respect I had for you. I admired that you were the who was "Brad Woods." A guy who would go anything to have fun. Dragging old appliances out of the clay center dump behind your pickup just to watch them tumble on the highway. Blowing holes in the floor board of your truck with a shot gun. You made my life interesting while living with the Wilkins. I will always think fondly of you. May you find peace whoever you land!
