

Bryce M. Scherling

September 30, 1976 - March 17, 2018

Bryce M. Scherling, 41, of Kearney, died Saturday, March 17, 2018 at his home.

Memorial services will be held at 2:00 pm Saturday, March 24, 2018 at Good Shepherd Lutheran Church in Kearney. The family will receive friends from 1:00-2:00 pm Saturday at the church.

Bryce Milb Sherling was born on September 30, 1976 in Valentine, Nebraska. Bryce was adopted as a young boy by Milb and Rose Scherling. He grew up in Plymouth, Nebraska and graduated from Tri County High School in 1994. When he was thirteen years old Bryce began living with his foster parents, Galen and Bev Plihal.

He was united in marriage to Tanya Kummer on September 25, 2004 in Grand Island. They made their home in Kearney where he worked in the landscaping business and drove a taxi. Bryce loved sports and was an avid Husker and Green Bay Packers fan. He also enjoyed spending time outdoors, especially hunting and fishing. He also loved spending time with his beloved dogs.

Bryce was a member of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church. He was baptized and confirmed at St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Plymouth, Nebraska.

He is survived by his wife Tanya of Kearney; his daughter, Kourtnee Tennyson; his foster family, Galen and Bev Plihal of DeWitt, NE, and Paul and Tammy Olson and their children Logan and Delaney of Omaha; his father-in-law, Allan Kummer of Columbus; his mother-in-law, Betty Hirshfeld of Benedict; his sister-in-law, Christi Wilson of Mississippi; special friends, Calob Pearson and Dorrya Williams; and several other friends.

Bryce was preceded in death by his parents, Milb and Rose Scherling; a brother-in-law, Cory Kummer; and an uncle, Robert Holle.
