Bryceton Herrera was born June 2, 2016 in Kearney, NE to Adam and Chelsea (Wollberg) Herrera. Bryceton's journey was followed by many. From the moment we found out about his heart condition the day after he was born, to his last moments surrounded by family and friends. The amount of love and support was, and still is quite amazing. Bryceton had opportunities to teach everyone, including medical staff, that he wanted to fight for his health. The countless number of procedures and operations are proof of this. He leaves behind a story only one of God's angels could tell here on earth.

Left to cherish his memory are his parents, Adam and Chelsea Herrera of Kearney; brother, Hendrix Herrera of Kearney; grandparents, Chris Herrera, Andy and Jeanne Wollberg and Shelly Dimmitt of Kearney; aunts and uncles, Jacob Wollberg of Kearney, Alexis Wollberg of Kearney, Matthias Wollberg and wife, Naomi of Riceville, IA, Chrissy Towery and her husband, Shawn of Kearney, and Cassie Ferguson and her husband, Chris of Superior; cousins, Ashley Towery, Zoie Schmidt, Henrietta and Mary Wollberg.

Bryceton was preceded in death by his grandfather, Bradly Dimmitt.

“ Adam and Chelsea, what a sweet, precious, hero he was. My heart aches for you and you will be in my thoughts and prayers in the coming days, weeks, months ahead. You were amazing parents, an inspiration to many and did everything humanly possible for Bryceton. He was a blessing to so many and touched so many lives in his 3 short years.

I hope you find some comfort knowing he is a little angel in God's hands now. Peaceful, pain free and keeping Grandpa Brad on his toes. May he rest in peace until you see him again. Amen.
