Carolyn M. Karash was born December 14, 1952 in Cambridge, Nebraska to Ambrose and Wilda (Bassford) Karash. She grew up in Cambridge and received her education from Cambridge High School, graduating with the class of 1971. Carolyn then attended Grand Island School of Business. She moved to Kearney in 1972 where she worked at Baldwin Filters and Rockwell International. She later attended Hasting Central Community College. Carolyn was a caregiver for a short time and then owned and operated a cleaning business for many years.

Carolyn enjoyed reading and flowers. She was a longtime member of Faith

Baptist Church in Kearney.

Left to cherish her memory are her sister, Marilyn Karash of Kearney; brother, Dennis Karash of Cambridge; special cousin, Mary Martin of Arapahoe; as well as many extended family and friends.

Carolyn was preceded in death by her parents.

“ I have very fond memories of Carolyn. She worked for me at Rockwell International in Kearney. She was always smiling, encouraging, and did an outstanding job in her work area of responsibilities. We had a lot of great times sharing life and our love of Jesus. She was a great woman of faith.

“ Marilyn & family:
Sorry to hear of Carolyn's passing, my thought and prayers are with you. I wish we had been able to keep in better contact after our days of working together at Rockwell, I remember our good times working together and also our fun times after work.

Marilyn, so sorry to hear this news. I so enjoyed the times I had with both of you. Remember the concert in Wichita.. Also the lunches at Sacs Pizza.. My sister Sharon forwarded this information as I had lost touch with you. Hope we can connect up again. Please know I did think of both of you often and am sending prayers. I am Bev (Adamson) Sutherland and I am remembering your sister with fondest of memories. Miss you.
