Words can not express our thoughts but I do like in Isaiah Those who hope in the Lord will renew thier strength and rise up and soar on the wings of eagles they will run and not grow weary they will walk and not be faint. This is a time when we must let Him carry us or we will be to weary to carry on. May God watch over you and your family.*

“ My sympathy to Carolyn's family. My daughter, Addie is in Colin's class. We met this school year and realized we lived down the street from each other. I enjoyed talking to her; she always had a smile on her face and was friendly and kind. My family's thoughts are with you at this time.

“ Homer, Glenn and I send our condolences and our thoughts and prayers with you today. We loved getting to know you, Carolyn and the boys at family gatherings at Steve and Megan's home. Megan had a wonderful friend in Carolyn and she always talked about how rare of a person she was. Glenn and I saw that in your family. You and the boys will be in our thoughts always.

“Homer, Colin, Calvin, and the Walker Family, My deepest condolences to you all in this most difficult time. I wish strength and peace for you all as you weather the storm. Having Carolyn as a friend was such a blessing and she will be deeply missed. Although we weren't able to remain in contact as often after the move back to Nebraska, I still treasure all the times we spent together as the Chicago Ladies! I will remember her kindness, infectious laugh, amazing sense of style, and elegance. I am thankful to be able to call her a friend. She was the best kind of friend, wife, and mother.

“ My sweet friend, Carolyn, how I will miss you, your cards, your pictures you would send me. We always managed to keep in touch despite us being far away. You will forever hold a special place in my heart. I have a picture of you in my home and stepping stone already personalized of your name to place in my flower bed. I will remember you every day and never forget your infectious smile and all the things we liked and had in common. "The angels are always near to those who are grieving, to whisper to them that their loved ones are safe in the hand of God." Rest in peace my sweet, dear Friend. See you again someday.
