“ The Davis Family, The love of a child can be the strongest of all emotions. Like it says in the bible love is poured out so freely; freely given that it can take your breath away. I am praying for you. He must have wanted to spend A Merry Christmas with Jesus this year. He won't have to suffer anymore. It's hard to say in words how much I care and I do. It has been a joy getting to know you as a family. As an encouragement remember the good times that you were able to spend with him. I pray God will give you comfort in His grace as time passes through this grieving time.

“ Hi, Marilyn & Ashley. I just received an e-mail from Cynthia about Chad's passing. Not sure if you knew that I moved to Grand Island in March, due to health reasons. Just wanted to say that Chad will be missed, won't forget all the memories we shared working at the college together. Sorry I won't be able to make the funeral. Will be praying for you & Ashley. Going to miss Chad!!! Talk to you later.

“ Chad was such a neat man. How fortunate he was to have a loving, caring family to support and encourage him. You made a courageous decision for organ donations; may you find a comfort in knowing that Chad blessed many families through your decision. I pray that your memories will help sustain you in the weeks ahead.
