“ I have so many it is hard to choose just what Memory I would want to share. My favorite one is when he explain to me who gave him what Cookie Jar's an what each one of them meant to him or why they were given to him, an what special occasion they were Given.He was so proud of his Collection. When I think of Charles, I think of his Cookie Jar Collection. My last one I will hold dear, is when that Clown Walked into his Hospital Room and drew Smiles an even a few Giggle's out of him! I will forever be grateful to that Hospital Clown for giving us the Glimpse of the Bother I had known before the illness.That Laughter/His smiles is how I will forever remember him. May the wings of a Special Angel Carry him home, tell we meet him again> Luv u all, " abby."

“ My favorite memory of Uncle Chuck was when he decided to teach us young cousins how to drive (this was late 1968 or 1969.) JR, cousin Chuck and I were sooo excited. Unfortunately, cousin Chuck wrecked the car before the rest of us got a chance to drive....Considering the car was fairly new, Uncle Chuck wasn't mad at us. Aunt Joyce wasn't pleased with any of us though.... Uncle Chuck always greeted me with a smile and asked how I was doing... Please know I am thinking of all of you and I am sorry we cannot be there with you.
