“ My Dear Charline, Now you are in Heaven with Willard, Danny, Mom & Pop Mohatt and your deceased brothers and sisters. Don't know if you know how much I admired and loved you, but I did. I always thought you were the neatest sister in the world, always smiling and laughing. I love you Sis, and will always think of you and your love for life. God Bless You, which he already has. Your baby sister, Joan Hammond

“ Charlene was a lady in every sense of the word. I enjoyed getting to know her at Mount Carmel during her stay. Always very polite and a grateful person for every bit of kindness shown to her even in her declining state of health. It was a priveledge to know her it this life and look forward to seeing her in the next.
