could be closer to her grandkids. She took great pride in being called Grandma Chris or Nana Chris. She then moved back to Kearney after being gone for about 12 years.

She enjoyed sewing and volunteered her time to sew for the local chapter of "Sewing for Babies." She enjoyed working part time at Casey's and Ace Hardware in Minden. Chris also worked at Wal-Mart in Grand Island and later transferred to Kearney before her health forced her to retire.

“ I'm so very sorry to hear Chris has passed. Unfortunately I wasn't able to spent time with her these last 40 years. Mostly only when we were kids as cousins. She was always a great person. Miss her and her parents. You have my deepest sympathies.
