“ Chris, Your calm demeanor and positive attitude always impressed me. You gave me the best game of cribbage that I have ever played and I will never forget it. The memory of you will remain vivid in the mind and hearts of all those whom knew you. You were a good man, husband, father, grandpa, and for me, an uncle. Rest in peace.

“ Remembering the good times. Remembering it's not the end. Reminding myself death is just another adventure. Be happy to have lived, than to not have lived at all. To those of you suffering from this loss... smile for him. Thats how he wants to see you. Smile because he left everyone with good memories. Smile because he does not have to feel the pain of the physical world and now smiles down on everyone. Lets allreturn that smile.
