“ It has been more than a year since your passing and I just now am finding out... I was thinking about you Cindy and turned to Facebook.

I am filled with sadness for your beautiful family and also telling myself to envision the blissful peace I have to believe you now have. Heaven is now holding one of our Best.

I miss you Cindy.

I pray God will Bless me with you again.

“ I met Cindy on my first flight to Nebraska for a job interview. She was nervous about the flight and sitting away from her travel companion and we held hands through the turbulence. She found me on Facebook and we messages a few times after that but I always remembered her kind spirit and how she put me at ease before uprooting my life to move out to Nebraska. She was a wonderful woman who touched the lives of so many on her journey! She will be missed. My condolences to the whole family.

“ I'm so sorry to read of Cindy's passing, we went to school together. She always had such a vibrant personality with a definite gift of gab. Everytime I would run into her, usually when she worked at McDonald's or at Walmart as a greeter, there wasn't a time that I didn't walk away without a smile on my face. My deepest sympathy to her family and friends.
