“ So sorry for your loss. I worked with Courtney way back to the USave Days. She was such a sweet person. We saw each other occasionally and she always shared her news with me about her jobs and children. Courtney always had a smile and made my day. My prayers are with the family and I will always have good memories of her.

“ Courtney had a beautiful, uplifting soul. Memories of slumber parties and work together have flooded my heart the last few days. The world will not be the same without her spark. Praying and holding space for those who love her.

“ As someone that has been to that precipice and back more than once, I understand and see both sides of the pendulum swing. I wish I could take the pain, the questions, the anger away and help folks to heal. All I can offer is a hand to hold onto....arms to wrap around you, ears to listen and a heart to love. Please know that I truly mean it when I say if you need something, anything, I will do all I can to help!! Not just now or in a month...but 6 months, 2 years...as long as we are here on this earth. My love is with you .
