Darlyne Marie Dodge was born December 10, 1925 to Vern and Hattie (Krubeck) Schrade in Stutsman County, North Dakota.

Darlyne received her education at Kensal, ND and graduated from high school in 1944. She then attended Central Dakota Commercial College in Jamestown where she was awarded a War Emergency Diploma and was employed at James River Bank. On December 29, 1945, she married Private First Class Neal Dodge. Darlyne joined him at Fort Bragg, NC. Having never traveled far this was a new and challenging experience for her. She worked on the base office where last payments were made to soldiers being discharged. After returning to Jamestown, Darlyne worked at Walsh's Market, ND State Hospital and then at Jamestown Hospital as an accounting clerk. They were blessed with two daughters: Lynda and Connie.

Darlyne and Neal also served in ministry in the Salvation Army touching many lives as they shared God's love. They moved to Kearney, NE in 1993 and enjoyed many years being a part of their grandchildren and great-grandchildren's lives. Darlyne was a compassionate caregiver for Neal until his death in 2012 after 66 years of marriage. She was a woman of steadfast faith in God, kind and loving to all, and strived to have a sense of humor despite the challenges of life. Darlyne and her family were thankful for the wonderful and exceptional care she received from the staff at Mother Hull Home and Aseracare Hospice these past few months and the encouraging visits from Pastor Roger Wendt.

Left to cherish her memory are her daughter, Connie Lester and husband, Clarence of Kearney; granddaughter, Carina Darlyne Bennison and husband, Josh of Helena, MT; great-granddaughters, Carina, Alexis and Ava; and brother, Robert Schrade of Jamestown, ND.

She was preceded in death by her parents; husband, Neal Dodge; daughter, Lynda Dodge; sister, Delores McBeain-Spriggle; brother, Alfred Schrade; and grandson, Chad Lester.

“ Love, Susie, Vicky, and Kelly purchased the Arrive in Style for the family of Darlyne M. Dodge.

“ I remember how easily Aunt Darlyne was to laugh. She and my Mom, Delores, would just look at each other and begin giggling. One time when I accompanied my Mom to see Darlene and Neil, we went shopping. My Mom was so excited to purchase a North Dakota plate to take home. Darlyne and I were loading the trunk, and Darlyne threw the bag with Mom's plate in it into the trunk. We were shocked to hear the plate break in many pieces. We froze and broke out giggling—what else could we do!

Much love to Connie and family,

Susie
