“ Kris and family: Sorry to hear of Darrel's passing. Sue and I will be thinking of you all tomorrow, and in the days ahead. 86 is a good age! In calling on many over the age of 70 in my years in ministry, I so often thought of the irony that we who are younger hope for a few more years, while those who have aged hope for fewer! In our aging, we come to know it is time, and not just time, but "good" to go on home. Joys and sorrows and all that the years do bring.

“ My deepest sympathy to your family. He will always be the best husband,dad and grandpa in the world. It's going to be hard but keep and share memories every day of him.Some days you'll smile but most days you will cry. And that is ok. Now God has him and there is no more suffering. Till you meet again. Praying for your strength
