“ From 1970-1976, my family lived in Minneapolis. My parents (Mom was Dorothy's sister) worked at Fort Snelling. During the summers, Debbie came and stayed with us and babysat me and my two brothers. Debbie loved to bake and sew. We stayed up late at night and talked and talked. She told me all about Gordon, NE and Kearney, NE. I thought they sounded like the most wonderful places on earth.

Later in life, my husband and I visited Deb in California and had an amazing time.

I loved family reunions. Deb knew so much about our family history and I loved listening to her.

My heart hurts knowing I won't see her again.

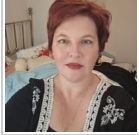

Debbie will truly be missed.
