

Deborah A. Wallace

July 25, 1965 - December 7, 2017

Deborah “Deb” Wallace, 52, of Funk, died Thursday, Dec. 7, 2017, at her home surrounded by loved ones.

Deb was born to Marlene (Lemberger) and Robert Crowell on July 25, 1965, in South Bay, California. She graduated from Gardner Edgerton High School in Kansas in 1983 and attended Central Community College. She graduated with her bachelor’s degree in Health Information Management.

Deb married Dave Crist in 1983. They had four children together before divorcing in 1991.

Deb loved spending time with her grandchildren, antiques and vacationing in Florida. Her favorite place in the world was Cocoa Beach, Florida.

She is survived by her parents, her three sons, Jason Crist and wife Amber, Josh Crist and Justin Crist, all of Gardner, Kansas; daughter Jessica Etheridge and husband Ben of Hastings; six grandchildren, Jalyn, Blaize, Ashlynn, Remi, Kenzo, McKinley, with a seventh on the way; three siblings and spouses; Denise Breen and Tom of Houston, Bob Crowell and Paula of Ottawa, Kansas, and Tim Crowell and Brandy of Edgerton, Kansas; seven nieces and nephews; and long-time life partner and best friend Steve Just of Funk.

She was preceded in death by her maternal grandparents and her aunt Marilyn Carrico.

In lieu of flowers, the family requests donations be made in Deb's name to the American Cancer Society.

Arrangements for a celebration of life ceremony are pending.

“ Deb would often come into LandMark Implement with Steve and sometimes one of her grandchildren would be with them. I loved her sense of humor, and her quick wit. We will miss her. Sending our sincerest condolences to Steve and Deb's family and friends.
