“ I was blessed to have spent time in bible study with Diane years back. Diane was so special. Loved knowing her. Also just seeing her, Don and Joe at Sunday services and how they embraced each other during prayers lifted my spirits and filled my heart with joy. Her home is in heaven now. God is with her loved ones as they grieve her loss. The God of all comfort.

“ Sara and Joe, Your Mom was always so brave and faithful to the Lord. She was incredibly cheerful in spite of all her health trials. I would go visit her in the hospital, thinking I could encourage her, but I went away encouraged by her.

“ My deepest condolences to her family and friends. Diane was a special Lady just like her mom and dad were. She graced my life with support and friendship at the right time in my life. She herself went thru many health challenges that we prayed her through and her life is is testimony to God’s love, mercy, grace and healing power in her life. I see She was blessed with children and a good partner. May she rest in peace! I just wish I could of crossed paths with her more over the years. Love you Diane, hope to see you on resurrection morning. 1Thess 4: 13-17. Our hope is in Christ alone. Prayers for the family. Love Cheryl Cherington
