Donald E. Frey was born August 17, 1948 in Pomona, California to Jim and Helena (Middleton) Frey. He was raised in Beaver City, NE where he attended Beaver City High School, graduating with the class of 1966. In January of 1969, Don entered into the U.S. Army where he was trained as a paratrooper. He was honorably discharged in January of 1973. Don returned home where he owned and operated Frey's Framing and Finish. He was an avid fisherman and always loved the time he spent with his family.

Left to cherish his memory are his son, Lucas (Meghann) Frey of Kearney; grandsons, Cayden, Quintin, Brennen and Sullivan Frey all of Kearney; mother of his son, Karen Frey of Kearney; sisters, Barb (Roger) Powell of Beaver City, Nancy (Dave) Brown of Beaver City, Carol (Dave) Crecelius of Hastings; and his dogs, Hunter and Callie.

Don was preceded in death by his parents; and his sister, Brenda Martin.
