“ Edna was one of the kindest human beings I knew as a young girl. She was a great friend to my grandmother that meant the world to me. They were the two women in my life who were made such an impact for me growing up. I may have never learned her green thumb, but she taught me so my skills through our meetings/teachings of sewing and baking for 4-H. But the biggest lesson of how to be kind. She was so much of what I needed at that time in my life and I will forever be grateful. My deepest condolences to her family. Cheryl Shin (prior Richter) and family.
