“ I'll treasure the memories of Edna's hugs at Countryside and her times with our family on holidays. She always had a kind word and a smile to encourage others.

“ Edna Johnson was a dear friend of mine when we both worked for the State of Nebraska at Kearney State College. Edna worked for maintenance and I was an Adm. Asst. Secretary to Marvin Knittel who was Academic VP at Kearney State. Edna was a pleasant and kind person that came from a "hard life" in Texas. She lived at a trailer court in east Kearney....she had a good heart and a wonderful laugh that lit up the World. I left Kearney and moved to Estes Park, CO back in 1992 and have resided here since then. I have not seen nor heard from Edna for years but shall never forget my times with her. May she rest in the Peace she well deserves. I always loved you, Edna. Thank you for your kindness and friendship at a time when we needed each other so much. God Bless. Jo
