Ed, son of the late Harding and Helen Turner (Beavers), was born March 11, 1947, in Kearney, Nebraska. He grew up in the Odessa/Elm Creek area, graduating from Elm Creek High School in 1965. A kind, gentle man, with simple tastes, Ed loved to travel and was an active outdoorsman. One of his favorite places to go was the Snowy Range in Wyoming, where he visited almost every year.

In 1980, Ed married the love of his life, Debra (Orsborn). Shortly thereafter, they moved to York, where he worked for over 20 years as a certified machinist at Hamilton Sundstrand Aviation. Ed was confirmed in the Catholic faith in 1985, becoming a member of St. Joseph Catholic Parish. As a husband and father, he shared his love of the outdoors with his wife, children, and grandchildren. Many weekends were spent hunting, fishing, or camping. In his retirement years he found new passions: gardening and the internet. He would spend hours sitting at the computer researching any and everything, and in the spring and summer he would spend hours outside in the garden. Ed also enjoyed his daily walks with his loyal dog "Maggie."

Ed will be mourned by his loving spouse, Debra; his children: Nick, Shane, and Sheri; his grandchildren: Brooke, Lane, Brendon, Paige, and Harding; his three siblings: Sharon, Rick, and Kevin; as well as numerous nieces, nephews, and cousins.

May he be blessed by God and greeted by angels in heaven. May he always live on in our hearts.
