“ Lisa and family, I'm so sorry to hear of your mother's passing. I've followed Lisa's posts on Facebook when she updated about her mom's status. Recently, I haven't been on the computer or read the obituaries and missed the notice and am just now finding out about her passing. Lisa and I were classmates and have always remembered how we have birthdays a few days apart. Also, not only did our mothers know each other but our sisters were also classmates and we had about 12 yrs between us siblings. It's very hard losing a parent but losing a mother is especially hard. A mother seems to be the one who always made sure that the family circle remained unbroken and was the one who we always called first when we had news to share or a question to ask. Both of our families are very fortunate in that we have siblings to rely on and to keep that circle together. May you find comfort in knowing that she is now home with the Lord and in the many memories you all have.

“ Sending my condolences to Evelyn's family. I have so many great memories from my youth growing up on East Avenue. My mom, Eleanor, used to coffee with Evelyn regularly. In fact, the day my sister Jane bit me in the stomach for teasing her, I ran screaming all the way to Anderson's to find my mom! I learned the delicate art of plucking feathers from a chicken under Evelyn's tutelage. I'm so sorry she had such suffering at the end of her years. Thankfully, she can peace and comfort in God's presence.
