

Garlyn M. Jackson

July 12, 1955 - July 29, 2025

Garlyn Jackson, 70 of Kearney, Nebraska, passed away peacefully on July 29, 2025, at CHI Good Samaritan Hospital. She was born July 12, 1955, in San Bernardino California, to Kendall and Helen (Kaufman) Sessions.

Garlyn lived a life marked by faith, kindness, generosity, humor, and hard work. She was known for cooking and crafts. She owned her own business, Garlyn Graphics. Beyond her work, Garlyn found joy in spending time with family.

Garlyn was one of seven children born to Kendall and Helen. Webbie, Keith, Korkie, Kristie, Kellie, and Kenda. Garlyn was preceded in death by her parents, her sister Korkie Pyles, and husband Kenneth Jackson.

Garlyn is survived by her son, Daniel Eads and his wife, Jenniffer; granddaughter, Kaitlyn; son Christopher Eads and grandson Rylan; daughter Rebecca (Eads) and her husband, Tracey Gilliard; grandchildren Tori, Hanah, Justin and his wife Chloe, Colby, Alexa, Vincent, Neya, and Jaxon.

A funeral service to honor and celebrate Garlyn's life will be held on Aug 30th at 11:00am at Grace Fellowship Church. Burial/committal will be in Burlington, Kansas.

The family wishes to express their heartfelt gratitude to caregivers, hospital staff, and friends. In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to Grace Fellowship Church.

Garlyn will be remembered for her faith in God, her love for family, her laughter and her servant heart. Her legacy lives on in the hearts of all who knew and loved her.

She was simply known by so many as "Nana"...Her favorite role in life.
