“ Dear Kathy and Family, I reach out across the miles to give you a warm and caring embrace of comfort and condolence in the loss of your dear husband, Bob. It is so very hard to "let go" of someone you have loved and lived with for so many years. Truly, there will be many sweet and precious memories of your lives together that will give you some sense of peace. God bless Bob, you and all of your family. Fond regards, Elsie G. Scruggs, Servants of Mary Associate from Massena, New York.
