“ George was a fun guy to be around we spent some good times together in our youth and determined among many things that one could pass other cars with his VW by rocking back and forth sometimes to get around another car he decided to pass. Sometimes truly exciting for both of us, but that was George, my condolences to George and his family.

“ I've known George for many years and in all that time he always was cheerful and friendly. We had many laughs and trades over the years at shoots & gun shows. He was a truly skillful blacksmith and like me, many people have a Schepers knife or 'hawk. My condolence to all of George's family.
