O'Brien Straatmann Redinger Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Geraldine M. Prather was born December 14, 1916 in Kearney, Nebraska to Fredrick and Hazel (Staley) Benzler. She was educated in Kearney and was the first in her family to graduate from high school when she graduated from Kearney High School in 1934. She worked at Coca-Cola Bottling Company after graduation. She earned $16 a week and that was more than her father was making at the time. She worked in the shipyards in California during the World War II. Later, she worked as a receptionist and interviewers aide for the State of Nebraska Employment Office in Kearney for 28 years.

Left to cherish her memory is her daughter, Karen Brown and husband, Larry of Kearney; grandson, Bradley Keith of Kearney; granddaughter, Brenda McMurtrey and husband, Brent of Rock Springs, WY; 6 great grandchildren and their spouses and two great great grandchildren.

Geraldine was preceded in death by her parents; husband; brother, Wayne Benzler and his wife, Ethel and one grandson, Michael Lee Brown.

“ Condolences to Karen, my mother knew yours well and she often talked about her giving you piano lessons when you were younger. My aunt Vinnetta Henning jogged my memory of this after having noticed Mrs. Prather's passing in the Hub. Take care.

Julie (Clausen) Robertson - November 21, 2013 at 11:54 PM

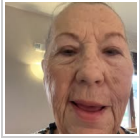

I remember that very well. I have been collecting piano books again and have the piano in my basement. Going to practice in my retirement! Ha!

Another great memory! Last year Larry dressed as Santa and Brad as an elf. Dawg had a Santa hat on, too. They knocked on her door and we laughed. Never thought we would see that
