“ Gil was my grandpa. I don't even remember the last time I saw him because I was very little. When I got the news he passed I remember just going speechless. He was the first person to get me a bike. Just letting you know your wife loved you soooooo much and I loved you soooooo much I hope your having an amazing time in heaven!! I love you!!

“ I knew Gil in high school--we both took a lot of art classes. He was such a nice guy and I can so easily picture his smile because he always seemed so good-natured. Condolences to his family.
