“ As a young girl visiting my uncle Glen and aunt Lois and my cousins, I always saw Glen as a big man with a gentle heart. He had a soft but hearty laugh that seemed too small and gentle for his size, but showed his true nature.

Our family's deepest sympathy to Lois, Teresa, Jim, Linda, Leonard, and Alan and their families.

“ We remember all the times we played cards and made homemade ice cream when our kids were little. We always admired his can-do attitude and humor. He was always what a brother-in-law should be - fun to be with.

Our thoughts and prayers are with your whole family at this difficult time.
