“ What an inspirational little woman Illene was!!! My husband and I fill in for the church service at Mt Carmel when Joe and Xan could not make it. Illene was usually the first one there and she so faithfully attended the services! She will always be a blessing to me when I think of her. She always had a smile, she LOVED God's Word with all her heart and loved to share stories of His faithfulness. She LOVED to sing the old hymns and she really was an encouragement to us. About a month ago, we went to see if she could make it to church and I could tell that she was not feeling well. She wanted to go to bed and said she did not want to come today. I coaxed her into coming and she sang with all her strength. I wheeled her back to her room and prayed for her and kissed her goodbye. She smiled and said I love you. I am so thankful to have watched her example and am so happy to know she was secure in salvation. In Christ,

“ Gary and family, Just want you to know you are all in our hearts and prayers. I don't think one is ever ready to say goodbye to a loved one. May the memories you will cherish forever help ease your pain in the days ahead. Your Mom and Grandmother will always be "close" to you. She is at rest with her lord. She was a very lovely lady and we enjoyed our many visits we had with her. God bless each and very one of you.

“ So sorry for your loss Gary. She sure was a good and fun Grandma even though she was only mine by marriage. I have lots of good memories of her. See you soon.
