“ So sorry to hear of Erma’s passing. She was a special loving friend. I didn’t get to spend much time with her but we shared a couple of joyous moments centered around her grandson Aaron. We both glowed in the light of his PHD graduation and at the wedding of Aaron and my daughter Jennifer. I was so amazed of her stamina as we celebrated trekking Mt Rushmore. She will be missed by all . May God hold her in his kingdom for ever and bless her family at this difficult time.
