“ Lois, Brandon & A.J. & families, We sincerely wanted to come to Jim's funeral today & share a hug but the weather is icy & we're sorry we cannot make it. Please know we are praying for you all & wished we could be there with you to give you each a hug. Jim was a quiet man that stood strong & put his heart into whatever he set his mind on doing. We'll always remember the emus, the gardening, the cars, the fireworks on the 4th of July parties & his birthday, the house on the corner of the highway will always be the Adamson house.... We pray God will protect you & hold you & embrace you with peace during this difficult time. We Love you!

“ I am very honored to have worked with Jim back in the Denny Mogis days and learned a great deal from working with him. i looked up to him in many ways and admired the way he would jump right in to dis-assemble his next project and get down to business, that is how i decided to call him "clyde" It took Jim a while to ask me about this and when i expained, we both shared a friendly chuckle. Jim, you were a great inspiration to me and just as i am today, i will always look up to you. -Gary

“ Lois and Family, please accept our deepest sympathy for your loss. Jim was a loyal and respected friend whom I'll never forget. His sense of humor and timing was second to none. Through the years I have missed seeing and talking to him, something I will always regret. Our memory of Jim dancing the hula at our luau party will forever be with the both of us, we will miss him. Sending you and your family our condolences, respectfully and sincerely Jim & Lora.
