“ We will always remember the summers we got to share with our cousin Jim - the twinkle in his eyes (just like his dad's and grandpa Joe's), his wicked sense of humor and laugh, and that amazing smile. Gone too soon and never forgotten. ~ Your Petrytus cousins - Julie, Tori, and Gary.

“ I did not know James but I had the privilege of hiring and working alongside his son Joey. Probably the greatest gift a father could receive is news that their children are awesome, amazing, and caring individuals who have passion and empathy for others. That sums up Joey to a T. He is thoughtful and passionate, quick to lend a hand and help a teammate and has an infectious laugh. Joey had the ability to turn work on and off and enjoy life just as much whether he was working hard and converting a large contractor, sharing a beer with friends or watching his beloved Huskers. His family means everything to him! He is a wonderful father to Claire.

Rest easy James. Your son has become a wonderful man. God speed and God bless.
