“*Dave, Chris, and Andrea,
I am so very sorry for the loss you are experiencing. I am thankful I got to know Jane. She was a kind and living wife and mother. I have so many memories of her eye rolls as Andrea and I told her of whatever new shenanigans we were getting into. She looked out for me when I went to Nebraska with all of you to hang out at the lake. She treated me like family and I loved her like she was my second Mom. I remember one occasion we were coming back from who knows where and it was late at night. Jane, Andrea, and I were tired and for some reason we kept quoting a line from the movie Dude Where is My Car. We were all laughing until we had tears running down our faces and our cheeks hurt.
Jane touched so many lives.
Each of you are in my prayers. I love you all very much!*”
