“ It's been five years and it still hurts the same. I am missing you a little bit more tonight and I need you here with me mom. I love you.

Maddison Weston - July 06, 2017 at 02:09 AM

“ Mom, I love you. Why did you have to go so fast. We were gonna do so much stuff in the summer. Never happened. <3 I know I didn't listen, but, I love you with all my heart. I'm having huge issues and I hope that you're looking down on me trying to help. I think of you everyday. I'm about ready to cry. This song on this makes me want to cry, but, I don't want to turn it off. The candles in the background remind me of so much. You love smelly things. I still have your fridge mangets that you painted. Gosh. Mom, you we're so beautiful. I wish you could be with me. Mother's day is coming up. It is going to be a living hell. Well, life is already an living hell. Mom, I have so many words to say. But, I don't know how to. I hope you can heal my pain I have deep down inside. No one knows how I feel. I feel like no one can be with me. I want to cry about everyday. Seeing your dead body made me want to cry. Then when we buried you in the ashes. I was being strong. But, I don;t think I can be strong anymore. Mom, I love you. I love you. I love you. I love you. I love you. Help me please. I love you. -Maddison Paige Weston

“ Rachel and Shelby - Grandma just told me yesterday about your Mom's passing. My heart is broken but you both know that your Mom is in heaven with her Lord, and Savior, Jesus Christ. God promises us that in a blink of an eye we will be re-united with our loved ones in heaven again. I picture heaven as a wonderful place, that your Mom is sitting and crocheting, and as she wants to show you something, she looks up and there you will be with her. Please allow God's love to embrace you at this difficult time. With much love.

“ I am so very saddened at the news of Janice's passing. My heart breaks for you three beautiful girls that she leaves behind. It weighs on me that Janice and I had lost touch over the years until just recently, she had attempted to get reacquainted. I had been very ill and decided to wait until I felt better. I just learned NEVER wait to tell a friend you miss them too.

“ Such a shock. She is now with her mother and no longer in pain, but that doesn't lessen the fact that she will still be sadly missed. You girls will be in my thoughts and prayers.
