“ Condolences to the Foster family. Our thoughts and prayers go out to your whole family. Psalms 147:3 says God, "is healing the broken hearted ones, and is binding up their painful spots." May God bring you comfort and peace.

“ Aunt Janice You had a full life blessed with many children Psalm 127:3, and now you are walking with Jesus and all your brother's and sister's and all the ones that have gone on before you. Say hi to my father and Donis and my aunt Clara (Nana) I know you are having a family reunion up there. I can feel your smile from here. And for the ones you have left behind they too can know that one day they can again be with you if they trust and believe in our Lord Jesus Christ so we to will have the best family reunion ever. When we leave this world and meet the Lord. I will be praying for our family during this time but know your Mother is suffering no more, she is at peace. I am so happy that I had the chance to speak to her on Friday before she went home. Take care of one another that is what she wanted more than anything. To each of her children, my cousin's I am sorry for your loss. I know your pain, but she wanted you to love one another and come together, we all make mistakes but its is hard to forgive. Remember God forgives us. So shall we!!

You're definitely related if you knew all Grandma wanted was for the family to come together💙 I'm Jenny (Johnny's Oldest) We've never met, but I remember her talking about you throughout the years. She loved you very much. Not sure if you go by Barbara Jean, but she always used both your names💙 Thank you for your condolences.
