“ I still remember when Joel came down to Kansas with Anne & Jim for a few days visit. We had a good time boating & skiing. When we'd open a bottle of wine, he'd give me a bad time about the old crappy wine opener I had. I got a surprise in the mail a few days later after he was back home, a nice new wine opener & flower blubs to plant (with directions) that I had mentioned I like. You will be missed by family & friends, rest in peace.

“ Joel was not only family but a dear friend. Over the years Joel had a way of making every get together names able with his quirky personality and good humor. He was the type of person that made you feel blessed by knowing him. I'll miss him greatly. My heart hurts for all whose lives are effected by his passing, especially his Sisters. May God help you through this difficult time.
