“ Many years ago, I knew Jack as a young man working at Cornhusker Ammunition Plant. He would walk out of the “aluminum room” cover in gray, with a smile on his face. His coal black hair nowhere to be seen. I was in love with Jack back then and have thought of him often. Many prayers for him and his family.

“ I delivered the Kearney Hub to him when i was a kid. Also got to know him more when he delivered propane to our house. He also had candy for my boys. Enjoyed the times when I see him around town.
