up.

Jo was preceded in death by her parents, and grandparents Lincoln and Eleanor Edlund and Fred and Martha Ingold.

“ Jo was one of the most thoughtful people I have ever known. She never missed an opportunity to send a gift, a card, or even a photo album. She wanted her family to always know how much she cared about them. Even when Jo was battling cancer, she took the time and effort to visit my mother, Gladys Ingold. She made Mom laugh, encouraged her, brought her snacks, and a photo album. I also found several cards from Jo in Mom's room that Jo had sent to her after Mom became sick. And this was Jo. Always caring for others. I will miss her greatly and take a lesson from her life of thoughtfulness and generosity. Kristi McCasland

“ My sincere condolences to Jolaine's family. I taught her in 9th grade civics my first year in Columbus. She was an excellent student and a caring person. I was a friend of her cousin, Fred, and recall the kindness shown me by her grandparents, the Ingolds when I first came to town.

“ Dear friend - I will always have so many memories of us through high school and decades thereafter...from spending Spring Breaks in Arizona, to summers at the Columbus Drive-In, Legion baseball games, at your grandma's farm, or the many times spent at your house in Columbus. We were both expecting our sons at the same time, and later both had our daughters. You knew everything about me, and I - about you. I never once-ever- heard you say an unkind word about anyone...and you were always truly happy for anyone's successes in life. You were brilliant, meticulous, trustworthy, and such a loving mother all of these years. My memory is very, very long...and I will cherish our memories together! I was very blessed to have called you my friend - Diane
