“ Josiah Eli “Joey” Jones was born to John Jones and Sabrina (Bender) Jones on Dec. 27, 2005. As his biological mother, I am happy to know that Joey had a personal relationship with Jesus! I love him and am thankful that Tom and Anne adopted him. I'm thankful that Anne raised him and loved him as her own and helped him grow to be the young man he became! He was always a loving child! He will be missed!

“ Joey was in my Beginning Acting Class. He was friendly to all of his classmates, and not afraid to try new things. On the last day, he told me that he was sorry the class was ending because it was his favorite. It was the nicest thing he could have said to me as a teacher. Mrs. DeWald, Theater Teacher

“ I've known Joey since 8th grade he was a good kid I loved when he showed me all the music he listened too and all the video games he played and what he wanted to do when he was older in 8th grade Joey always walked me to class and at the end of the day told me to stay out of trouble and be good and if I seen him in the morning he told me to have a good day and smile. We will miss you forever 🙏

“ Joey was one of the sweetest kiddos I’ve had.
When I needed his attention I would call him feeeesh because the first time at the store he wanted me to look at the fish and I told him that was disgusting and my grandma calls fish feesh then he told me to call him that.

Also, the day we went to the park and the other kid was determined to teach Joey to do a flip! He got close!

Joey loved cats and really any animals (he wanted me to adopt all the cats for him) and nature. He always would ask me how my day was even if he was having a bad day and would offer me an apple!

Really going to miss you kiddo.
