Joyce Slaughter was born in Ogallala Nebraska to Laretta and Ollie Valentine on March 1, 1950. Ever after to be known as Joy, she lived up to that name. Joy enjoyed life and deeply loved her family and friends and her Lord.

She recently lost her well fought battle with cancer at home surrounded by family. She is survived by her loving husband Dave of 55+ years and two sons, Jason Slaughter of Lincoln and Scott Slaughter in Omaha, two grandsons Tyler Birrenbach and Tristan Stricker-Slaughter. Their mothers

Stacey Stricker and Kerri Birrenbach have had a special place in her heart for many years.

Joy taught in many capacities for 38 years. She was enriched by the challenges of students with special mental and behavioral needs and later truly enjoyed sharing those experiences while teaching university classes before retiring in 2018. She taught Sunday School in 3rd, 4th, and 5th grades for 18 years and attended summer camp with them for 13 years.

Joy was active in ARC serving on the board to plan activities for the local groups and at the state level developing policies regarding adults with Developmental Disabilities.

Dave and Joy enjoyed traveling, having fun day tripping in Nebraska and planning cruises every five years to celebrate key anniversaries. Their time together as Best Friends was full of rich experiences. She also enjoyed 'treasure hunting' trips with two very good friends and was constantly supported by her friendships with her watercolor painting group, reading club and Bible studies and a very special Prayer Partner of 7 years.

Dave and Joy always had special dog friends in their home and her dogs were always with her inside and out. Together, Dave and Joy planned and maintained beautiful outdoor spaces and were proud to earn a Yard of the Month award. They enjoyed having family and friends in their home frequently and her special delight was to be her youngest sister's guardian and have many special times together.

Joy is survived by her husband David Slaughter, mother Laretta Valentine, sisters Jackie Hays and Brother-in-Law David Hays, sister Jerri Valentine, sons Jason Slaughter, Scott Slaughter, grandsons Tyler Birrenbach, mother Kerri Berrinbach-Clark, Tristan Stricker-Slaughter, former daughter-in-law, Stacey Stricker, Sister-in-Law Julie Larsen, Brother-in-Law Tom Larsen, Sister-in-Law Roberta Slaughter.

Joy was preceded in death by her loving father Ollie Valentine, older sister Linda Brott, brother-in-law Mark Slaughter.

“ Joy was my very first camp counselor in 1994 at Twin Lakes Bible Camp. She exemplified Jesus in all she said and did that week, and I have fond memories of her from that week and over the next few years as she did camp trainings and I bumped into her from time to time. It has been 20 years since I last saw her, but I think of her often and am so grateful for her example at camp all those years ago. I now work in full-time camp ministry because of my first experience at camp-which was completely positive and I owe a lot of that experience to her.

“ Slaughter Men,

Take care of yourselves and each other. Tell stories and laugh. Tell everyone who will listen about Joy's deeds and spirit. After a little less than two years, I feel closest to my dad when I tell the world about him and continue to spread his love. Keep sharing the love she gave you all. Joy loved to laugh, have a good time, help others, and spread love. Not a more fitting name for a woman.

My thoughts are with you as you navigate this next chapter in life.
