“ Dear Art and family,

*I am so sorry about the death of Joyce. Joyce was such a caring person. She was a loving day-care provider for one of my daughters years ago, and I always so enjoyed visiting with you and Joyce. You both ALWAYS had a smile and kind words. May God comfort you and help you through this difficult time with many fond memories.

“ My earliest memories of Joyce include trying to comb her beautiful strawberry blonde curls without making her cry, her hugs when I took off her ankle braces, and her smile when we came home from school. Throughout the years, her smiles and hugs made our family events complete. We could always count on Joyce for love, encouragement, non-judgemental listening and understanding. Her family was the center of her life, and we were all blessed to have her in our lives. I will always be thankful that Joyce was my sister.

“ We will miss Joyce. A couple small encounters I remember --- Boogaarts --- the Kremers had made a batch of chili, but no one had "thought cinnamon rolls were necessary." She went to Boogaarts and picked up cinnamon rolls - because that was the finishing touch whether anyone else wanted them or not!

Another memory my husband & I have is when we sat with Joyce & Art during a family & friends meal after church. We were all talking about "our kids" in the night watch at the house of prayer. In the middle of the chat, Joyce blurted, "Why can't we have that here?" My husband & I didn't know how to answer --- we sort of felt "responsible," but not quite sure what to say!

But out of everything --- we remember her strength coming through time and again in the last few months when the battle raged against her - tackling only the dusty flesh she wore in this physical life. Everything about who Joyce is in Jesus showed through time and again for us. That is so filled with hope, and will stay with us here. And it is that blessed hope which has increased upon us through our time with Joyce and --- we will rejoice again when we are all gathered together unto Him, never to part. She's cheering us on. Thank You Lord for Your beautiful testimony in Joyce.

We are praying for all the family here. Don't rush. Take time. The memories are worth everything in the days ahead.
