“ Pauline, Patty, Mike, Mickey, and extended Chavez family please accept my deepest condolences. I remember Juan as a kind, esteemed, respectful man. In his quiet manner he always had a smile to share-be it morning, noon, or night. He was a devoted Father and Husband and was happiest when in your presence. I know he will be greatly missed because he was cherished by his beloved family. I feel your loss in my heart. Know that he is home and that we will see him again. This promise will not be broken. May the Peace of our Christ Lord be with you and comfort you now. Love and Peace to you all.
