“ *My thoughts and prayers for comfort and peace go to you all during this time. I never had the pleasure of meeting Kenneth, but I most certainly had the honors of taking care of his wife Ella! I was her Hospice aide during her last few months on this earth. She talked so highly of her husband. Always a neat story of an adventure made by the two was to be heard!! I always enjoyed talking with her about her husband, she seemed so proud of him! I'm sure he will be missed by many.
God bless,
Leslie Archer.*
